

ADDITIONAL TELEGRAPH.

for with great interest and has been freely discussed. No paper has gone to press, and the banks generally have been caring for their customers. Though the panic has been spreading, the merchants are not seriously alarmed, and the city is not seriously affected by the storm which is raging in the East.

The Run on Banks at Washington.
WASHINGTON, Sep. 20.—The run on the Freedmen's and Washington City Savings Banks continues to-day, but is much less than yesterday. The former has paid out $65,000. There are about seventy persons, the majority being colored, awaiting their turn at the counter, and the actuary says it is about the usual Saturday afternoon crowd.

Washington, Sep. 20.—Evening.—Although much interest was to-day manifested in the exciting news from New York and Philadelphia, it had no apparent effect on the banking institutions of this city. The run on the Freedmen's and Washington City Savings Banks continued, but not to the extent of yesterday. No disturbance of business at Boston.

Boston, Sep. 20.—The financial alarm in New York is the principal subject of discussion, but so far does not interfere with business.

Only Nerves to Induce Caution at Montreal.
MONTREAL, Sep. 20.—The only effect here of the panic in New York is to make the bankers more cautious and less willing to let out their funds, which are ample for all their legitimate commercial demands. The discount rates vary from 7 to 8 per cent, according to the standing of the names.

A Suspension at Toronto.
TORONTO, Sep. 20.—H. J. Moore & Co. bankers and brokers in this city have suspended, owing to the failure of Cooke & Co., and other prominent houses.

A Temporary Suspension at Albany.
ALBANY, Sep. 20.—T. Squire & Co. bankers, announce their temporary suspension until further orders from New York.

Suspension of a Branch of Tausig & Co. in St. Louis.
ST. LOUIS, Sep. 20.—Tausig, Gemp & Co., of this city, closed their afternoon business, owing to the failure of Cooke & Co., and other prominent houses.

The Texas Editors—The Exposition Holiday To-day.
CINCINNATI, Sep. 21.—The Texas Editors' Excursionists left here for Louisville this morning.

The Texas Editors at Louisville.
LOUISVILLE, Sep. 21.—The Texas Press Association, numbering over thirty editors besides correspondents of the newspapers, arrived here this evening, and will be given a handsome reception to-morrow by our merchants.

River News.
CINCINNATI, Sep. 21.—River four feet seven inches, and falling. Weather clear and cool.

Nashville, Sep. 21.—Twenty inches on the shoals. River declining slowly. Weather clear and pleasant.

SPAIN.
MADRID, Sep. 21.—Evening.—The Cortes adjourned to-day in accordance with authority recently granted by the Cortes.

The government has issued a proclamation suspending the constitutional guarantees, and regulating the press throughout the country. This action on the part of the government and the occupation of Malaga yesterday by the forces under General Pavla, have restored the public confidence.

ENGLAND.
LONDON, Sep. 22.—The members of the Polar expedition will sail from Liverpool for New York, Tuesday next.

Royal Courtiers at Vienna.
VIENNA, Sep. 21.—Emperor Francis Joseph has appointed his guest King Victor Emmanuel Honorary Colonel of an Austrian regiment.

At Jeddah, Sep. 20.—Evening.—Two excitement over the failures has abated and matters are beginning to assume a right shape, although the stock market was somewhat feverish to-day; yet the affairs on the street were more settled, and no doubt to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury to make use of $44,000,000 of the reserve fund it desired.

The failure of the Union Banking Company of this city, had but little effect on the public mind, as it was a small concern, and its failure cannot possibly affect other institutions.

The Fidelity Trust and Safe Company met all its obligations to-day. The run was not as heavy as yesterday, only about $400,000 being paid out.

Presidential Trip Taken by Chicago Savings Banks.
CHICAGO, Sep. 21.—A meeting of the officers of the different Savings Banks in this city was held to-day, at which all the Savings Bank institutions in the city were represented. After a full discussion of the financial excitement and trouble in New York, and the probability of the extension of the panic among the people of this city, it was unanimously resolved to notify their depositors through advertisements in newspapers and personal notice, that they will avail themselves of the privilege given them by their charters of giving sixty days notice before calling for their deposits. This action was deemed a simple act of prudence to forestall the effect of any excitement which the news of the panic in New York may create among their customers. Private telegrams were received to-night, stating that the President and Secretary of the Treasury had decided to order the purchase of forty millions of bonds at once. Prominent business men express great satisfaction at this decision and believe the result will be most favorable.

No Disturbance at Milwaukee.
MILWAUKEE, Sep. 21.—The financial panic of New York produces no disturbance here as yet, but the banks are preparing for any emergency that may occur during the coming week.

The Brazilian Cable.
LONDON, Sep. 21.—The steamer Beine on the 7th inst. recovered the Brazilian cable which was lost on the 31st of August, one hundred and fifty miles east of Madeira. She will probably lay the shore end at Madeira, and it is expected that the section of cable between this city and Madeira will be completed and telegraph communication opened to-morrow.

Weather Report.

ON Monday for New England, west and south-west winds, backing to south-east with a falling barometer.
For the Middle States, southerly winds, partly cloudy and warmer weather.
For the Southern States, northerly winds, with clear or partly cloudy weather and possibly local storms off the South Atlantic coast.

For the Ohio Valley and lower lake region, southeasterly winds, falling barometer and increasing cloudiness.
For the upper lakes and the North-west local areas of threatening weather, followed by northwesterly winds, and rising barometer.

The telegraphic reports are very generally missing from stations west of the Mississippi.

GEORGIA.
Freights and Injury to Railroad Tracks—Two Accidents with Fatal Results.
Augusta, Sep. 20.—The heavy and continued rain storm Friday and Saturday night did considerable damage to the railroad entering this place, washing away culverts, wrecking trains and killing and injuring several employees of the road. At Branchville, on the South Carolina Railroad an up passenger train from Charleston ran into a washed culvert, and the engineer, fireman and two train hands were killed. On the Central Railroad the engine of the down freight train ran into a culvert, eight miles below Millen. Six cars were piled upon the engine, and then engineer and fireman scalded to death and a train hand was killed. A engine fell through a trestle on the Port Royal road, but no person hurt.

YELLOW FEVER.
DISCOURAGING NEWS FROM SHREVEPORT.
NEW ORLEANS, Sep. 21.—In response to a telegram from the medical faculty of Shreveport, the Howard Association today dispatched three physicians to the city, each of whom has had many years' experience in the treatment of the fever in Louisiana. Hopes are entertained that they may be successful in checking the ravages of the epidemic.

The news from Shreveport to-day by private dispatches is very discouraging. The disease continues spreading, and the percentage of deaths is so great as to cause the most painful apprehensions.

THE RIVER.—The river is still falling with only three feet in the channel.

FAIRER ALARM.—The alarm of fire sounded about half past eleven on Saturday night, proved to be false.

STRANGE BUT TRUE.—For a wonder there will be only one court in session in this city, after to-day, for some time.

BOY HURT.—A boy named Mickey was badly hurt, Saturday morning last, in Centre Wheeling, by being thrown from a horse.

GUARDIAN APPOINTED.—On Saturday last the County Court appointed Geo. A. Wickham guardian for Helen A. Wright, wife of Geo. E. Wickham, deceased—bond $1,000.

POLICE COURT.—There were only two cases before the Police Court on Saturday morning. Dues, $10; drunk, $5; and costs; William Moslander, disorderly, $10 and costs.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—J. M. Miller, auctioneer, sold, on Saturday last, at public sale, a house and lot on Fillmore street near the Belmont mill, to George Hubbard, for $780.

NO CASE.—At the regular Saturday afternoon session of the Police Court on Saturday last, there was no case on the docket, so the court adjourned without transacting any business. A short time after the adjournment, however, three or four unfortunate were hauled up who were compelled to remain in duarage until this morning.

COUNTY COURT.—The following business was transacted in the County Court on Saturday last:
The case of J. Sims vs. S. Thompson was set for Thursday.
The case of Adolph Yocke vs. L. Q. Burkham and F. Winter was fully heard, and the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff.

NARROW ESCAPE.—As the Vigilant engine was about turning the corner of 10th and Main streets on Saturday night, having been called out by the alarm of fire, the engine was just crossing the street. Fortunately the horses did not stop on him, and the engine was stopped before it passed over him. He was brused a trifle, but not badly.

CHURCH SERVICES YESTERDAY.—Yesterday being a beautiful day, all of the city churches were well filled. At the 10th Street Lutheran church communion services were celebrated, and special services were held. The first service commenced with a prayer meeting at ten o'clock in the morning, after which the regular communion was celebrated. Sunday School at two o'clock was well attended, and at half past three a special service was held for the children. At this service a number of children were baptized, and at the morning service a number of persons joined the church. The evening service was appropriate to the day, the pastor preaching a beautiful discourse. The church was beautifully decked with flowers, and at each service the house was full, a large number partaking of the Lord's supper than at any previous communion of the church.

GRAND LODGE OF THE UNITED STATES.

On Thursday last the R. W. Grand Lodge sanctioned and approved of the amendment to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of West Virginia, changing the time for holding its annual session from April to October.

The Committee on Appeals made the following report, which was laid on the table under the rule:

"To the R. W. Grand Lodge of the United States:

"The Committee on Appeals, to whom was referred the appeal of Samuel F. Paris from the action of the Grand Lodge of West Virginia, report that they have considered the case, and find that, according to section 4, article V., of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of West Virginia, Samuel F. Paris, Past Grand, was refused the right to vote for Grand Representative live at an election of officers of said Grand Lodge.

"The article reads as follows: The Past Grand and Representatives of each Lodge shall have one vote collectively for officers of the Grand Lodge.

"The Committee think it is clear that the article is in direct conflict with the laws of this Grand Lodge. See Digest, Sections 1537, 1539, 1563, 1569. We therefore recommend the adoption of the following:

"Resolved, That the action of the Grand Lodge of West Virginia, in said matter, be reversed, and the appeal be sustained."

This report was not acted upon on Thursday, but would come up for adoption on Friday.
